

Drive loyalty with special fuel offers for business customers!

The Chevron and Texaco Business Card Merchant Funded Discount Program

Merchant Funded Discounts are a great way to attract new business customers — and reward your current business customers. Your best customers are long-term customers, so build your relationships with area businesses by giving them one more reason to keep coming back.

How does it work?

You decide who gets a fuel discount and how much it will be. These discounts are funded by you and will be administered by WEX and charged back to you daily during the settlement process.

Remember...

By offering Merchant Funded Discounts, you're encouraging business customers to use the Chevron and Texaco Business Card Program — potentially lowering your overall third-party credit card transaction fees.

Sign up for the Merchant Funded Discount Program today!
